GLENN WALKER
Glenn Walker, age 60, of Flagstaff, Arizona, formerly of Hope, died Sunday in Flagstaff.
He is survived by his wife, Mary, two sons, Billy and Bob, two daughters, Sandy and Debra, all of the home, and his mother, Mrs. Sietle Monroe of Hope. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

FLOSSMOOR, Ill. (AP) — Judge Elmer J. Schnackenberg of the U.S. 7th Circuit Court of Appeals died Sunday of an apparent heart attack. He was 79. Schnackenberg served many years in the Illinois house, including four years as speaker, and was a Cook County (Chicago) Circuit Court judge before his appointment to the federal court in 1954.

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — George E. Schmidt, 50, director of commercial and industrial development for the Bureau of Indian Affairs died Saturday of cancer. During his three years with the bureau, more than 100 industrial firms were established in Indian reservations around the nation.

Three Persons Killed in Plane Crash

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three persons, including two children, were killed early today when their single-engine plane plowed into a hillside, 12 miles west of here, shortly after takeoff.

Identification of the victims was not immediately available, but the flight was believed to have originated out of Houston, stopped at Little Rock over the weekend and was a return trip to Houston.

Mrs. Stella Ellis, who was awake at the time of the crash about 4:15 a.m., said she heard the plane's engine whine "like the pilot was trying to gain altitude."

"Then I heard it hit and the whole house shook," she said. The tower at Adams field said a plane matching the description of crashed plane left at 3:57 a.m. under special visual flight rules. The plane took off in light fog and rain.

Witnesses on the scene of the crash said it appeared plane to fly straight into the hill.

lades had 19 per cent.
A survey by the New York Times indicated that if the election were held today Nixon would win the presidency with 346 electoral votes from 30 states, Wallace would get 77 electoral votes from eight states and Humphrey would garner only 42 electoral votes in six states.

The Times said six states were too close for a prediction. To win the election a candidate needs 270 electoral votes.

The vice president, who has taken a break from his road campaign until Tuesday when he appears in upstate New York, also said any debates should be expanded to include the vice presidential candidates. Calling for ratification of the nuclear arms control pact, passage of gun control laws and confirmation of Fortas, Humphrey suggested Nixon may be vacillating on these matters in order to appeal to people on both sides of the issues.

Humphrey's campaign manager, Lawrence F. O'Brien Sunday pointed to one of the reasons why he thinks his man is lagging so badly. He still suffers from "identity" problems, O'Brien said.

He said that as the campaign continues efforts will be made to show that Humphrey is "his own man," even if this leads some people to think that "Mr. Humphrey's views do not necessarily coincide with those of President Johnson."

O'Brien was interviewed on NBC's "Meet the Press." In another Sunday development, Humphrey told a meeting of the Zionist Organization of America that he favors continuation of U.S. military aid to Israel to keep the Mideast arms race in balance.

"Until permanent peace in the Middle East is achieved and the arms race ended, then continued United States military assistance to Israel, including what has become such a symbol and I think such a necessary—supersonic planes such as Phantom Jets—is justified," Humphrey told the group.

Turning from the debate issue, Humphrey released a statement today saying that if the nation's economy maintains full-employment growth with reasonable price stability there should be no "upward trend in tax rates" over the next few years.

WR, Crank Nearer to Debate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller gave in Sunday to Martin H. Crank, his Democratic opponent, on one point concerning their proposed television debates, but remained steadfast on another.
Rockefeller had proposed a 20-minute opening statement by both candidates. Crank said he favored a 10-minute statement. Rockefeller said in a letter to Crank that he would "split the difference" and agree to a 15-minute initial statement. The governor said the candidates would still have more than 20 minutes to answer questions if each is allowed three minutes of summation.

The governor, however, refused to agree to more than three debates. Crank had proposed a series of six debates but said Saturday he would agree to limiting the number to five.

Crank also said Saturday he did not think a series of six debates would become a campaign sideshow. Crank made the statement in a replay to a remark by Rockefeller.

Crank suggested that the first of the five debates be sometime during the week of Sept. 30 with the debates concluding the last week of the campaign.

Rockefeller said Sunday his plans required him to end the debates no later than Oct. 20. The general election is Nov. 5. The two candidates have moved a step closer toward settling on the members of a panel.

Crank said he wanted to "make it very clear" that he has no objection to members of Sigma Delta Chi, a journalism society, acting as panelists on the debates.

The governor suggested that the society be asked to work with the television stations in an attempt to agree upon a panel.

"I think we could simply agree that we would let Sigma Delta Chi make all the decisions and arrangements with respect to the selection of the panelists and we would agree to abide their decisions," Rockefeller suggested in the letter.

Crank also proposed Saturday that the first and last programs be filmed from Little Rock, the second, third and fourth in El Dorado, Fort Smith and Jonesboro, respectively.

ear and, on Sunday, spotted Eler's younger brother, Danny, near an apartment house. A dozen cars sealed off the area, but stayed away from the apartment which Eler rented Saturday.

Koelsch who normally works with juveniles, was advised by radio to call a phone number. Police said the person who answered the number was Danny, who handed the telephone to his brother.

"He told me he'd decided to commit suicide," Koelsch said of the accused. "I told him that was a bad way out. After we talked for a while he agreed to talk to me in person, and told me where the apartment was."

Koelsch became acquainted with Eler two years ago while he was riding a police beat in an area where Eler worked at a service station.

"When I got there Danny was standing in the door, waiting for me. Bob was on the phone, I think he was talking to his mother."

Koelsch said Eler occasionally took the revolver from his gun belt and cocked it as they talked.

"He wasn't threatening me or anyone else," Koelsch said. "He was just thinking of taking his own life. He kept saying over and over again that he didn't want to hurt anyone."

Koelsch said Eler talked by telephone twice with Carl King, assistant chief of police at Hollywood.

Eler's mother and sister, Dee Dee, joined the three men at the apartment later.

Koelsch said he didn't question Eler about the slaying, saying his only concern was to get him to give himself up.

Finally, Koelsch said, Eler handed over his revolver to his brother and Danny gave it to the deputy.

At Kansas City, Mo., it was disclosed that Eler's estranged wife had sent their 1-year-old son to another state for safety. Mrs. Patricia Eler went to live with her mother and stepfather when she left Eler in July. Hollywood police had told her that Eler had threatened to kill her and their son. Police were guarding the home in Kansas City until Eler surrendered.

Dorothy Clark, 42, of Clarkston, Ga., mother of the slain girl, was found unconscious and critically wounded in her car about four miles from the spot where her daughter's body was found. Marilyn had been shot five times in the head.

Club Is Told About Poultry Industry

The growth of the poultry industry in this area during the past five years was graphically explained to the Hope Rotary Club last Friday when Wayne Russell, general manager of Delight Egg Farms, and Arthur Dillard, local producer, spoke at a program arranged by Robert LaGrone.

According to Mr. Russell, the egg market is on the increase, and those engaged in this business are truly businessmen-farmers. One of these businessmen-farmers, Mr. Dillard, told the story of eggs, "From Hen House to Egg Factory." With charts as illustrations, he told of the changes made in recent years in the types of chicken houses being used. He said that we are not only in a Space Age but also an Egg Age, and his clever talk gave emphasis to the importance of this industry in Southwest Arkansas.

President Harold Eakely introduced a few matters of business to the club and welcomed members and four guests, Hendrix Spragins, Pete Shields, Jr., Bill Hairr, and Charles Sharpe, Jr.

Britt's Charge Is Called Ridiculous

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Bill Wells of Hermitage, the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, said Sunday night that a recent charge by incumbent Maurice Britt was "ridiculous," and that the charges had no basis.

Britt said Thursday that W.H. "Bill" Sanson was rehired by the Arkansas Children's Colony Board as co-ordinator of special projects because of political intimidation.

Wells said Britt had quoted Charles E. Acuff, superintendent of the colony, as his authority.

"I immediately called Mr. Acuff and he told me personally that no such threat had been made to him, or anyone else that he knew of, and that he had not confirmed such a threat to any person," Wells said at a news conference.

Acuff said he had talked with Wells and had told him there had been no threat of reprisal. He said he felt that the situation had resulted from a "misunderstanding."

the university anew?
The first planned action took place last Thursday, a demonstration at a meeting of some 750 senior faculty members. There was some shoving and pushing as about 200 activists, led by SDS, tried to push into the meeting.

Next will come a "victory rally," according to plans obtained from SDS sources, at noon Tuesday in front of the student cafeteria, to celebrate cafeteria workers winning a weekly minimum wage of $100.

Then, at 6:30 p.m., on the steps of Low Memorial Library, and just before a convocation for freshmen, a torchlight service is planned to honor slain Congo leader Patrice Lumumba.

REP. FEILD (from page one) fied to perform the duties of this important position. He will make the kind of Speaker we want in the House of Representatives and I will be proud to serve with him."

The campaign between the two had been a friendly one. McClerkin defeated former state Sen. Jack Clark for the Democratic nomination for his House seat this summer and has no Republican opponent.

McClerkin noted Saturday in the press conference in the office of the House speaker in the Capitol, that the budget hearings over which Feild will preside will involve the state agency budgets that will be presented to the 1969 legislature.

"I am anticipating working with a Democratic administration in the next legislature," McClerkin added. "Mr. Feild's withdrawal from the race for speaker allows an opportunity for the House to organize and get ready for its business when we convene next January."

McClerkin was asked if it were premature to make definite plans before the Nov. 5 general election.

"We can get preliminary organization work done as best we can before Nov. 5," McClerkin replied. "Our desire is to see the legislative branch — House and Senate — assume a position of leadership in state government if the executive branch fails to produce leadership as it has in the past 20 months."

shotguns and ammunition to persons under age 18, handguns and ammunition to those under age 21, and sale to out-of-staters of any firearm.

Scott said that in addition to the amendments amendment three other amendments added by the Senate Judiciary Committee would incorporate exceptions that "substantially endanger its effectiveness" by:

— Authorizing issuance of "collector's licenses" which Scott said would virtually exempt a person from all controls in the bill.

— Permit over-the-counter sales of firearms to persons from adjoining states so long as firearms laws of neither state involved were violated.

— Loosen standards to permit issuance of a dealer's license to a person who does not conduct commercial operations.

Alongside the amendments before the Senate is a substitute bill sponsored by Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., which would require the registration of all firearms and licensing of their owners.

Its approval was considered unlikely. Registration and licensing proposals have been voted down both by the House and by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., denied that a proposal for state control of guns would lead to confiscation of guns or would impose fees on sportsmen.

and allow each of the other eight members to do likewise. However, the six Democratic members said they had nothing to say.

Only one other Republican, Odell Pollard, the party chairman, wanted to make a statement.

Pollard said he wanted to review the state Supreme Court ruling, which said the third member of a county board must be a "representative" of the majority party, not necessarily a member of that party.

As Pollard attempted to review concurring opinions to the majority opinion of the court, Secretary of State Kelly Bryant, a Democrat, objected, saying, "We are getting a lecture on law."

Wildlife Group Asks Why No Charge Filed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Wildlife Federation says an accusation which developed during a recent hearing is enough basis for charges to have been filed.

The federation, in a resolution adopted Sunday, asked the state Game and Fish Commission to determine why charges have not been filed.

Rex Hancock, president of the Grand Prairie Chapter of the federation, introduced the resolution. He said testimony given during the recent oyster hearing for Commissioner Raymond R. Farris of Biscoe indicated that some of Farris' property had been baited with wheat three days before a Sept. 1 dove hunt.

He said state and federal regulations prohibit the baiting of a field. Hancock said two wardens, W.H. Corper of DeWalls Bluff and Troy Staggs of Brinkley, indicated by their testimony that they took part in the alleged incident.

The oyster hearing was held Sept. 3 at Little Rock and adjourned indefinitely pending a decision on whether it should be postponed until Farris was in better health.

Hancock said Corper testified at the hearing that he shoveled wheat out of the back of a truck driven by Staggs.

Hancock said W.H. McMillan of Arkadelphia asked Staggs how he knew to distribute the wheat.

Hancock quoted Staggs as saying: "I know Mr. Farris

Flood, Aided by Maris, Carries Cards

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
Curt Flood's champagne spray gave the St. Louis Cardinals that heady feeling again before Cincinnati's George Culver officially popped the cork. Flood's five-hit spree in a 7-4 victory at Houston Sunday got the Cardinals' National League pennant party off to an early start.

But the champagne stayed on ice for one anxious hour before word arrived from the West Coast that Cincinnati had eliminated the second place San Francisco Giants 4-0 on Culver's four-hitter.

Then the bubbly flowed as the Cardinals celebrated their second successive flag and third in the last five years.

"It's good to be right on the scene when this is going on," said General Manager Bing Devine, who rejoined the Cardinals this season after three years with the New York Mets.

"This is the game you wait for from March 1st on," said Flood, whose five singles in five trips to the plate raised his batting average six points to .302.

Sunday's victory, coupled with San Francisco's loss to the Reds, sent the Cardinals 12½ games ahead of the Giants, who have just 12 to play.

Pittsburgh trimmed New York 3-0 on Steve Blass' two-hitter, the Chicago Cubs blanked Philadelphia 4-0 behind Ferguson Jenkins and rookie George Stone hurled Atlanta past Los Angeles 5-2 in other NL games.

Detroit moved closer to the American League pennant by pounding Oakland 13-0 while Cleveland downed runner-up Baltimore 2-0, the streaking New York Yankees edged Washington 3-2, Minnesota nipped Boston 3-2 and California beat the Chicago White Sox 4-1.

Southern League's Steve Carlton pitched the Cardinals to their biggest victory of the year, surviving Houston 11 hits, including Jim Wynn's two-run homer, to bring his record to 13-11.

Flood and Roger Maris, who knocked in three runs with his fifth homer and a sacrifice fly, paced the Cardinals' 15-hit barrage against Don Wilson, 13-15, and three Houston relievers.

Carlton fell behind 2-1 when Wynn unloaded his 23rd homer in the first inning, but Flood's second hit and Maris' homer sent the Cards ahead to stay in the third. Orlando Cepeda drilled a two-run single in the fifth and the champs added two more runs in the sixth on Flood's bases-loaded single and Maris' sacrifice fly.

Culver, a last-minute replacement for Mel Queen, the Reds' scheduled starter, finished the game with the help of a three-run seventh inning uprising. Pinch hitter Mack Jones lashed a two-run single off Ray Sadecki to snap the scoreless deadlock and Tony Perez extended his hitting streak to 15 games with a run-scoring double.

Culver allowed just one hit—Willie Mays' ninth inning double—after the fifth in bringing his season mark to 11-15.

Blass, 16-5, struck out 10 Mets and drove in two of the Pirates' runs with singles in the second and fourth innings.

Billy Williams doubled in two Chicago runs and Adolfo Phillips homered, helping Jenkins, 18-14, breeze past the Phillies with an eight-hitter.

Stone nailed his seventh victory in 10 decisions with relief help from cousin Cecil Upshaw as the Braves subdued the Dodgers. Felix Millan, Hank Aaron, Joe Torre and Mike Lum each poked two hits and drove in a run.

Bobcats Won Everything But Game

By RALPH ROUTON

Star Sports Writer

Going into last Friday's game at Prescott, the Hope Bobcats were really fired up. They kept the winning attitude on the sidelines until the final buzzer proclaimed the contest a 0-0 draw.

Although the Bobcats did dominate the statistics and the field position game, though, Hope was just one big play away from either victory or defeat.

The Bobcat running game didn't move the team as effectively as it did against Ashdown, and this is proven by the fact that the Cats threw the ball 14 times, as compared with four attempts last week.

On the opening kickoff Hope tried a series of handoffs, which had gone for over 35 yards against Ashdown. This time, however, the exchanging produced a fumble which gave us the ball on the Hope 15. That was as far as the Bobcats were pushed back all night.

Moving the ball on the carrying of Jim Alford and Jerry McWilliams, the team moved to a first down at the Hope 37 before a holding penalty eventually brought about a punt. Prescott's Bill Greer took the boot and ran 20 yards to his 45-yard stripe, but a clipping penalty set the ball back at the 31.

Moments later the Hope fans were on their feet when McWilliams jumped on a Prescott fumble, and the Bobcats were in business on the Curley Wolves' 33. Still looking magnificent on offense, QB Larry Massanelli selected his plays well and the Cats attempted to mount their first scoring drive of the young season.

A beautiful reverse sent tailback McWilliams flying 13 yards to the 3 after good gains by him and Alford. On first down Jerry bucked to the two, then Massanelli called the previously successful counter play to FB Alford. This time, though, the ball never found the pocket, and Prescott recovered on the two.

Backed up to their own goal, the Curley Wolves punched out enough room for a punt, which Rodney Jones returned 24 yards to the Prescott 11, ending the quarter.

Three runs set up 4th and four around the five-yard line, but on fourth down Massanelli was nabbed for a loss in the backfield, thus ending the last serious threat of the game. Prescott moved out to the 36, where once again they lost a fumble to the Bobcats.

On third down, though, a holding penalty once again set Hope back 15 yards. As if that wasn't enough, a deflected pass on the next down dropped into the hands of Prescott's Roscoe Franks, who was quickly tackled at his own 38. Once more the Bobcats held, and a punt by Mike Payne put Hope in their own territory for the first time in quite a while at their own 32. Hope couldn't move the ball this time, and punted to the Prescott 25, where the combination of a short return and a personal foul call on Hope put Prescott out to the 45.

Three plays gained little, and the Curley Wolves punted back as the first half ended scoreless. But the complexion of the game was to change little in the second half.

Hope kicked off and held Prescott, forcing another punt which gave the eager Bobcat offense running room at the 39. Soph Gary Wheelington was relieving McWilliams at times now, and he helped the Cats move to the Curley Wolves' 46 before punting to the 10.

The Wolves worked Greer on the sprint-out for the first time on the third down and nine situation, and he moved for 10 yards, the longest gain for Prescott all night.

That ended that, however, and a shifty punt return by Wheelington set up the Cats right around midfield.

Still, Hope just couldn't get rolling, but a Still punt was downed on the Prescott 3 as the third segment closed out 0-0. On a fourth down punting situation from the nine, the Bobcats got a bad break by jumping offside, and a later punt moved Hope back to its own 46, where the squad gathered forces and launched a passing attack.

Running off a string of four out of five completions, Massanelli showed his stuff in getting the team down to the 30, where the movement stalled and Prescott took over at the 28 on downs.

With 3:50 remaining, things got pretty desperate. In the closing minutes both teams came fairly close to long completions, but all just silted through the ball on downs, and the game ended with Prescott on the Bobcat 46, their deepest penetration of the game.

Palmer First $1 Million Golf Player

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — Arnold Palmer can relax. He's pro-golf's first official millionaire—and he's also out of a slump.

Palmer pushed his official PGA earnings over the $1 million mark as he won the $150,000 Kemper Open with one of his old-time charges Sunday at the Pleasant Valley Country Club.

A veteran of 14 years on the tour, Palmer later was asked how it felt to become a millionaire by playing golf. He replied with a big laugh.

"It feels great—certainly one of the greatest thrills of my life," he said. "Actually, I went over the $1 million mark some time last year. Now it's nice to have it official. For a while there this year I didn't know if I could make it."

Palmer, who was 39 last Tuesday, earned $938,515.22 in official money on the PGA tour through last year. He has added $110,377.57 this season, but some is listed as unofficial—such as money picked up in play outside PGA jurisdiction.

The old warhorse, accompanied by an increased Arnie's Army in a huge crowd of 39,300, started the final round three strokes off the pace. It was apparent that it was to be his day. He had an eagle 3 on the second hole, sinking a six-foot putt.

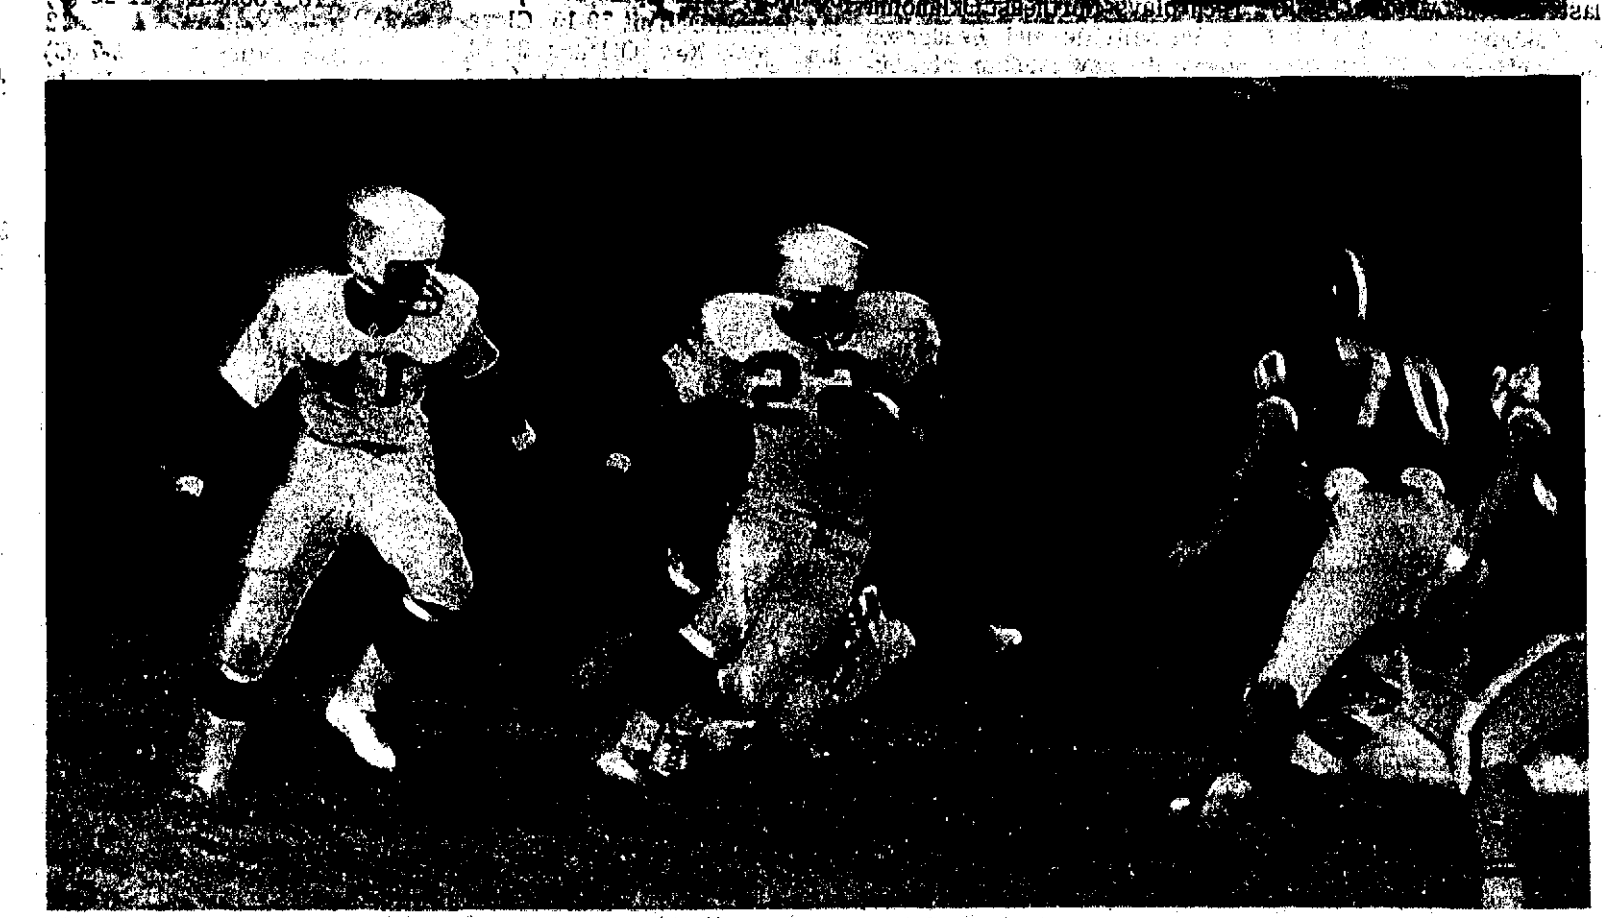

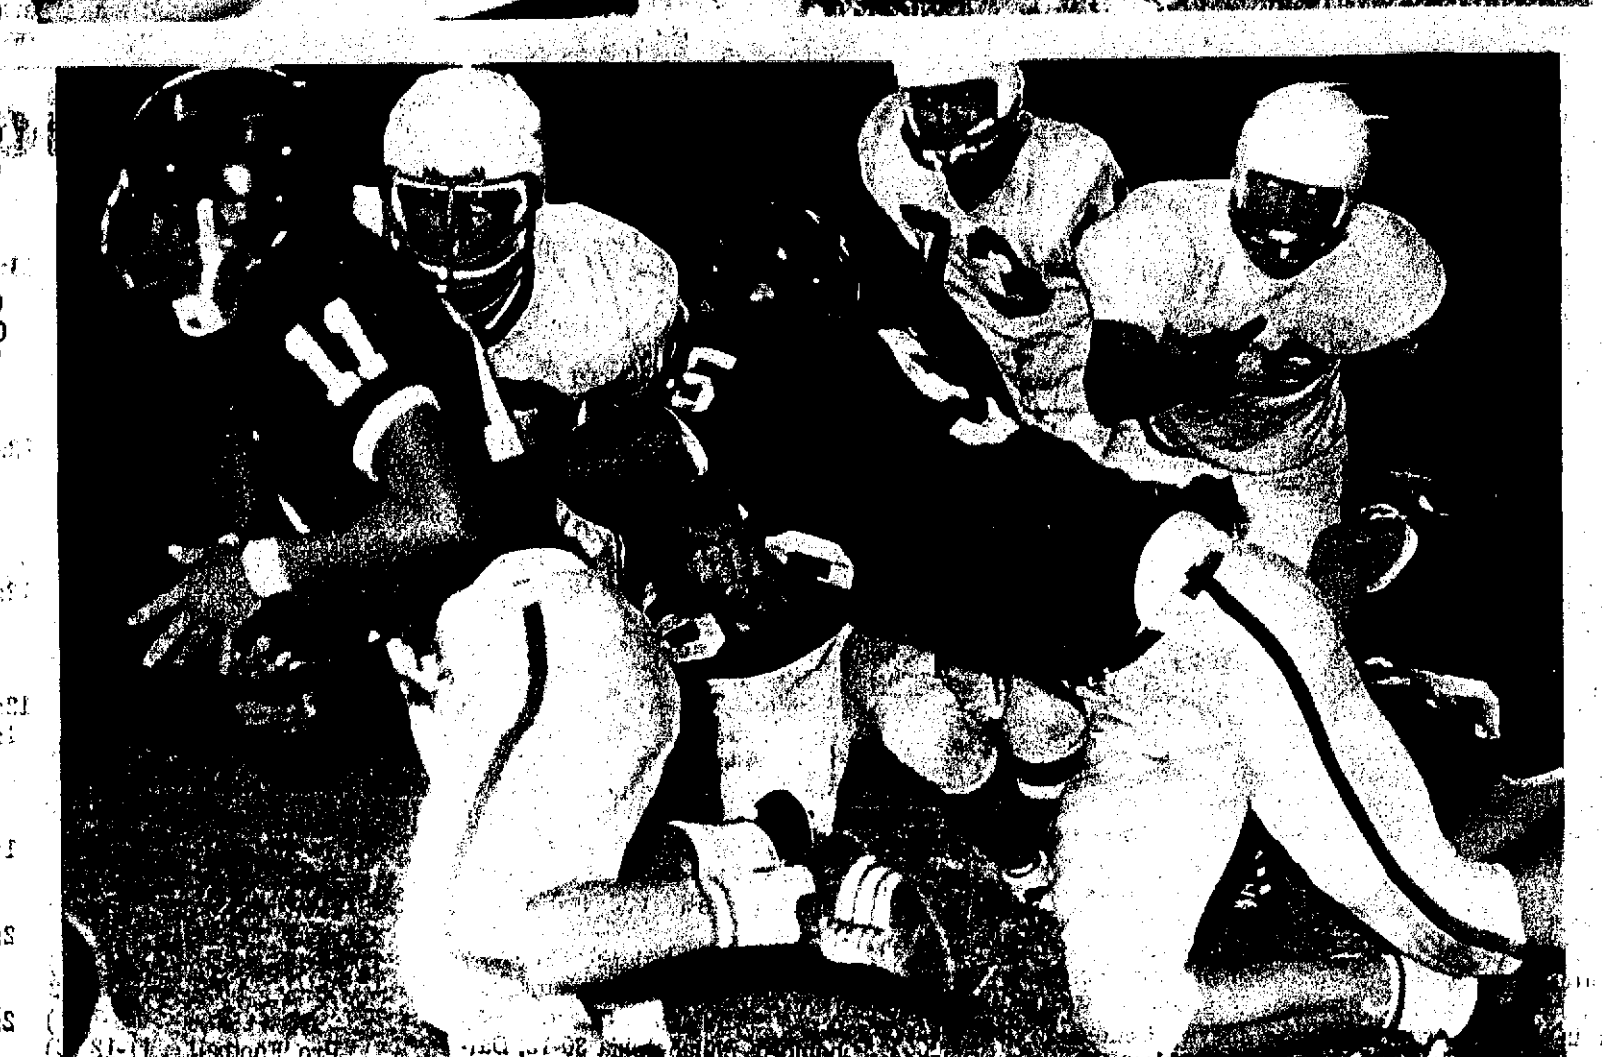

He went on to add five birdies, more than offsetting a pair of bogeys, and finished with a five-under-par 67 and a 72-hole total of 276, 12 strokes under regulation.

fort, the Bobcats now stand 0-1-1 entering this Friday's home game with DeQueen, who was rocked 37-6 last week by a strong Broken Bow, Oklahoma team.

The Leopards are rebuilding with a new coach, but always give Hope a good game.

Tonight the "B" squad tries to extend its winning string at home against Magnolia's reserves, who have lost 19-6 to Strong and 30-0 to Junction City. The game starts at 7:30 p.m. this evening at Hammons Stadium, and everyone should come out and back the "B" team throughout their nine-game slate.

No double, Bred in Arkansas, Is Winner

By ED SCHUYLER Jr.

If you're the pre-race favorite, finding the winner's circle at the end of Michigan Mile and everyone should come out and back the "B" team throughout their nine-game slate.

stack.

The latest favorite to come up with oats on his face after the 20th running of the event at Detroit Race Course is Damascus, Mrs. Edith W. Bancroft's 4-year-old millionaire colt finished second Saturday, 2½ lengths behind Verna Lea Farm's Nodouble, the only 3-year-old in the field, who paid a winning mutual of $97.20.

It is becoming almost traditional for the favorite to be upset in this race. Damascus was the 19th first-choice who failed to win. Beau Prince, in 1962, is the only favorite ever to get home first.

And Damascus, who carried highweight of 133 pounds to Nodouble's 111, almost didn't get second.

Although the Bobcats (in the white uniforms) dominated the game it was to no avail. The Wolves just wouldn't be scored on.

Jets Knock Off KC, Bills Finally Win

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Buffalo Bills have ended Coach Joe Collier's losing streak at two games and the Cincinnati Bengals have stopped Coach Paul Brown's at one, but only Brown is celebrating.

"Here's to one in a row," Brown said, toasting a soft drink to Cincinnati's 24-10 victory over Denver Sunday, his first in the American Football League after losing his debut last week.

Collier, however, had little to be happy about after the Bills were trounced by Oakland 48-6, their second but last 1968 loss under Collier, who was fired after the game.

In the only other AFL contest, Joe Namath did the firing for the New York Jets and they upset Kansas City 20-19.

In the National League, Green Bay staggered Philadelphia 30-13, Baltimore defeated San Francisco 27-10, Dallas ground out Detroit 59-13, Washington outlasted Chicago 38-28, New York tripped Pittsburgh 34-20 and Cleveland overcame New Orleans 24-10.

On Saturday Minnesota squashed Atlanta 47-7 in the NFL and Houston breezed past Miami 24-10 in the AFL.

Cincinnati's victory meant more than just a 1-1 record for Brown, who left pro football five years ago after a glorious career leading Cleveland of the NFL. His expansion Bengals won two exhibition games, but Sunday's upset was the real thing.

Brown took a chance to get it. With his club on its own 46 yard line, fourth down and inches to go in a tie game in the fourth quarter, he went for the first down and fullback Tom Smiley got it.

On the next play, John Stofa connected on his second long touchdown pass, a 54-yard heave to Warren McVea. Essex Johnson added an insurance touchdown with 2:53 left, slipping 34 yards into the end zone.

Collier, who coached the Bills to the division title in his first year in 1966 before falling to 4-10 last season, watched sadly while Oakland took apart his rookie backfield and ran over his defense.

First-year quarterback Dan Darragh, replacing injured Jack Kemp, never got started as he spent much of the day on the ground. The defending AFL champion Raiders, on the other hand, pushed right through the Bills as rookie George Atkinson ran 86 yards with a punt for one score, Larry Todd ran for two from scrimmage and Pete Banaszak and Hewitt Dixon added one each on the ground.

Collier still feels the Bills will win "their share of games," but it won't be for him. He was replaced by Bills' player personnel director Harvey Johnson, a former Canadian Football League and Buffalo assistant coach.

Namath tossed 57 and 30 yards to Don Maynard for two first half touchdowns and Turner added a 22-yard field goal and then the clincher, a 42-yarder in the final quarter that made the score 20-16.

The high-powered Chiefs were able to score only on Noland Smith's 80-yard punt return and Jan Stenerud's four field goals, giving him 8-for-8 this season.

But after Stenerud's last kick, Namath started from his own four and passed the jets out of trouble as they ate up the rest of the time.

Namath finished with 17 completions in 29 tries for 302 yards and Maynard grabbed eight for 203 yards.

Patterson Really Bruised Up Champion

By JOHN FARROW

Associated Press Sports Writer
STOCKHOLM (AP) — Jimmy Ellis travels home to the United States today with the World Boxing Association heavyweight crown still under his belt—but with plenty of bruises to prove Floyd Patterson had given him a real fight.

Ellis retained his crown in a controversial 15 rounder at Stockholm's open air Raasunda Stadium Saturday night.

New York Referee Harold Valian scored the fight 9-6 in Ellis' favor. The Associated Press made 33-year-old Patterson of New York, the former world champion, the winner on the round-by-round scoring.

Patterson ended the fight with a bruise on one cheek, Ellis had seven stitches over his right eye. His nose was broken. The thumb of his left hand was frac-

Fights Last Night Magic Number for Detroit Is Now Two

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Watching the Detroit pitching staff in action for the last two weeks could give a hitter an inferiority complex. But Jim Northrup, Bill Freehan and Willie Horton took care of that little problem in a hurry.

While Mickey Lolich was stretching the Tigers' complete game string to nine with a three-hitter, Northrup and Freehan walloped two homers each and Horton hit one in Detroit's 13-0 romp over Oakland Sunday.

The victory, combined with Baltimore's 2-0 loss at Cleveland, cut Detroit's magic number for clinching the American League pennant to two. The end could come tonight if the Tigers beat New York and the Orioles lose in Boston.

In other American League action Sunday, the Yankees stretched their winning streak to 10—highest in the majors this season—with a 3-0 decision over Washington. Minnesota shaded Boston 3-2 and California topped Chicago 4-1.

In the National League, St. Louis clinched the pennant beating Houston 7-4 while Cincinnati was eliminating San Francisco 4-0. Atlanta dropped Los Angeles 5-3, Chicago shut out Philadelphia 4-0 and Pittsburgh blanked New York 3-0.

The Tigers, who have won six straight, haven't used a relief pitcher since Sept. 4 and Lolich gave the bullpen another day off. The left-hander struck out 12 and ran his record to 15-9.

It was Lolich's second complete game in the Tiger staff's string. Denny McLain, who won his 30th game Saturday, has three, Earl Wilson has two and John Miller and Pat Dobson one each.

Northrup tagged a two-run shot in the first inning and Horton followed with his 36th of the season. Freehan had two-run homers in the third and fifth, raising his season's total to 24. Northrup's second of the game and 19th of the season touched off a four-run Tiger sixth.

The Yankees bunched three runs in the fourth inning and hung on to nip the Senators for their 10th straight.

Frim Peterson won his sixth straight with late-inning help from Lindy McDaniel. Tom Fresh singled and scored on Mickey Mantle's double in the fourth. Then singles by Joe Pepitone and Ellie Rodriguez drove in two more. Home runs by Ken Williams and Tim Cullen accounted for Washington's runs.

Stan Williams threw a four-hitter at the Orioles and left Baltimore 10-2, games behind Detroit with only 11 to play.

Max Alvis homered for the Indians.

Bob Allison, who had homered earlier, drove in Minnesota's winning run with a ninth inning double as the Twins nipped the Red Sox.

Cesar Tovar singled and stole second before Allison delivered. Rookie Gerry Moses slammed a two-run homer for Boston.

California's Andy Messersmith beat Chicago on just four hits with the Angels packing 10 singles and all their runs into the first five innings.

Singles by Jarvis Tatum, Bob Knoop and Jim Spencer and a sacrifice fly by Bob Rogers gave the Angels two runs in the fourth and three singles and an error by Ken Barry produced two more in the fifth.

Baltimore Wins Without John Unitas

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
Johnny Unitas says he had a perfect game.

"I didn't make a mistake," he said.

Earl Morrill says he "made about 20 mistakes that John wouldn't have made." But Morrill, the on-the-spot quarterback for the Baltimore Colts, was given the game ball as the team's outstanding performer Sunday in its 27-10 victory over San Francisco.

Unitas, the Colts' veteran leader, made his quip from the sidelines, nursing an injured right arm. Morrill, acquired from New York less than a month ago and with minimal experience with the Colt system, was thrown into the breach.

He completed 16 of 31 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns.

In other National Football League games Sunday defending champion Green Bay bombed Philadelphia 30-13, Dallas blasted Detroit 59-13, Cleveland took New Orleans 24-10, New York beat Pittsburgh 34-20 and Washington defeated Chicago 38-28.

The league opened its 49th season Saturday night with Minnesota blasting Atlanta 47-7, and opening weekend continues tonight with Los Angeles at St. Louis.

In the American Football League, New York edged Kansas City 20-19, Oakland crushed Buffalo 48-6 and Cincinnati upset Denver 24-10. Houston beat Miami 24-10 Saturday night.

Morrill, a 12-year veteran, had his second pass of the day intercepted and returned for a touchdown. But he came back with confidence, directed a 72-yard scoring drive and then passed for touchdowns on tosses of eight and 16 yards.

"Earl was on the spot all week getting ready for this game," Coach Don Shula said, and he produced when it counted. He handled it like the guy we need to back up Unitas."

The champion Packers made new coach Phil Bengtson's opener an easy one, coasting in behind Bart Starr and a rugged defense. Starr hit on touchdown passes of 12 and 55 yards and a brilliant kickoff return by Herb Adderly set up another touchdown. The defense, meanwhile, didn't allow the Eagles a touchdown until the final period.

Don Meredith hit Bob Hayes with a 50-yard touchdown strike on his first throw against Detroit and the Dallas Cowboys were off and running to their highest point production in history.

Meredith hit on 16 of 19 passes for 228 yards, including another touchdown, before leaving with the game safely in the bag in the third period. Walt Garrison scored two touchdowns on one yard plunges.

Detroit simply was overwhelmed by a Dallas offense that ran up 542 yards.

Sonny Jurgensen demonstrated he was completely recovered from his elbow operation, firing four touchdown passes—including one of 99 yards to Gerry Allen—in Washington's victory over Chicago. He also connected on scoring passes of 15, six and 19 yards.

Ron Rye's two long kickoff returns set up a pair of early New York touchdowns and the Giants took it from there against Pittsburgh. Fran Tarkenton threw touchdown passes of 10 and 13 yards following Rye's heroics and later scored on a four yard run.

Oklahoma Teams Have a Bad Day

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was a bad weekend for Oklahoma teams in Arkansas. Stanley May threw two touchdown passes and scored a touchdown as Southern State came up with 13 points in the final period and defeated Southeastern Oklahoma 26-20 at Magnolia Saturday night.

Meanwhile, at Fort Smith, Leon Anderson tossed two touchdown passes to Don Thone as Arkansas Tech knocked off Southwestern Oklahoma 21-7.

Henderson, the other AIC team to see action Saturday, succumbed 22-14 to Millsaps' 15-point fourth period.

All seven conference teams tackle out-of-state opponents this week.

Arkansas A&M, defending AIC champion, hosts Northwest Missouri at Monticello. Harding plays Centenary at Searcy. Tech plays Northeast Oklahoma at Russellville and Henderson opens its new stadium at Arkadelphia against Mississippi College.

Ouachita Baptist University and State College of Arkansas open their 1968 seasons on the road. OBU plays Southeastern Oklahoma at Durant and SCA is at Florence, Ala. Southern State rounds out the schedule with a journey to Livingston, Ala.

Arkansas S. Loses to Michigan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Southland Conference could boast a measure of pride today in the way member University of Texas at Arlington almost upset the nation's top-ranked small college team, San Diego State, last Saturday night. UT-Arlington lost 23-18 but quarterback Mike Baylor gave the 35,000 San Diego fans a scare in the closing moments when he directed a drive to the Aztec doorstep only to see his pass on the final play of the game intercepted at the San Diego goal.

The victory was the 27th in the last 28 games for the Aztecs, seeking their third consecutive national championship.

In other games involving Southland members, Trinity ripped the University of Mexico 53-0, Abilene Christian nipped Northwestern Louisiana 17-16, West Texas blasted Lamar Tech 45-7, and Western Michigan beat Arkansas State 20-0.

Trent Lancaster's nine-yard touchdown gallop and a two-point conversion by quarterback Jim Lindsey gave Abilene Christian a come-from-behind victory. The Wildcats had trailed going into the final period.

Terry Parsons ran through a lightweight Mexico team for three touchdowns in the mismatch at San Antonio.

Lamar Tech found out how hard it is to try to tackle Eugene (Mercury) Morris, West Texas' hard-running back. Morris escaped for touchdown runs of 71, 9, 97 and 33 yards.

The games this week show Arkansas State at Drake in a day game, Trinity at Texas A&I, East Texas at Abilene Christian, Northeast Louisiana at Arlington, and McNeese State at Lamar Tech.

Viet Dam to Help Refugees

The Trieu Phuoc Dam in Trieu Phong Province of South Vietnam is nearing completion. When finished, the dam, constructed by the Vietnamese and sponsored by the Civil Operations and Revolutionary Development Support, will serve 30,000 persons in the district, including 13,000 refugees living in Cam Lo village. Realizing the benefit they will derive from a supply of fresh water, Vietnamese women joined the men in a massive effort to complete the dam as well as irrigation ditches bringing water from the Cua Viet River to 250 acres of rice fields.

PADDLING THEIR OWN CANOE, a fisherman and his family pass through the nearly completed Trieu Phuoc Dam. The dam, constructed by Vietnamese labor, will separate the fresh water of the Cua Viet River from the salty Gulf of Tonkin, providing fresh water to 30,000 persons in the district.

Jim: "You must be pretty happy about winning the Masters' Mixed Team Championship after all these years?"

Oswald: "Never thought that I would. It took you and Minda (Mrs. Malcolm Brachman of Dallas) and Mrs. Smith to pull me through."

Jim: "You've overworked that Mrs. Smith gag. (For the benefit of our readers, his partner was Helen Sobel Smith, the greatest woman bridge player of all time, who came out of retirement for this event.) What system did you and Helen use?"

Oswald: "We used standard American plus weak two bids and a little early Culbertson. In other words, just the way we would have played together in a rubber bridge game 20 years ago."

Jim: "Just about the way

she and Charley Goren used to bid together?"

Oswald: "Almost exactly. We did use limit raises but did not get around to the Jacoby two no-trump."

Jim: "How did you handle forcing raises?"

Oswald: "Helen just said,

"We'll work them out." We would have reached six hearts scientifically by use of the Jacoby two no-trump. She just checked for aces and bid it."

Jim: "Our opponents didn't reach the slam. How did you make the overtrick?"

Oswald: "It took two leads to draw trumps. Then I discarded three clubs on dummy's diamonds. Cashed my ace of spades. Led a trump to dummy and played the jack of clubs. East thought that I still held two clubs and played low."

Jim: "A nice little extra touch."

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

George Ade's "Fables in Slang," 1900, an idiomatic satire of "yokels" turned "rube," was a best seller at a time when many Americans were themselves leaving the farm for the city. The World Almanac says Ade was in turn amusingly characterized by humorist Oliver Herford: "Somehow I always like to think of George Ade as a Summer Drink/Sparkling, and cool with just a tang of Pleasant Effervescent Slang."

THE WELL CHILD

Instability of Infants Causes Needless Alarm

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

The newborn comes into the world with several of his body systems only partially developed. Nowhere is this more true than in his digestive tract, which at birth lacks some of the enzymes necessary for the complete digestion of his food. For this reason, the newborn is unable to handle any but the simplest foods. In the first few days of life even milk may pass through only partly digested. Although this means loose stools, this is not true diarrhea and after a week or two, when the ability to digest improves, the baby may appear to be constipated. This, too, need cause no alarm if the baby seems well and happy.

Another sign of the newborn's instability is his body temperature. On the second or third day of life his temperature may reach 103 or 104 and he may become restless. This is a sign not of infection but of dehydration which may be due to giving the baby an insufficient amount of water between feedings or keeping him in a room that is hot and poorly ventilated. Only when these causes, which are easily corrected, have been ruled out should one suspect an infection.

An infant starts learning as soon as he is born. Whatever reaches his brain through any of his five senses makes an impression but those stimuli that are repeated early and often are the ones that have the most meaning for him. As he advances in age he must set his own learning pace. He will learn to walk and talk when the muscles necessary for these accomplishments are sufficiently developed and when he feels the need to use them to further his own expanding world. In these matters you should encourage him without pushing him and let him pursue whatever interests him provided he is not hurting himself or others in the process.

Q—A boy, 13, whose testicles are drawn up into his abdomen thinks this was caused when his father kicked him from behind five years ago. Can he go through life that way? What will happen as he grows older?

A—The injury five years ago would not cause undescended testicles. Because of the danger of testicular cancer, these organs should be brought down by a surgical operation if they have not come down spontaneously by the time a boy is 10 years old.

Regarding W. Ave. B
Arkansas Horse
The Cossatot

According to the telephone our well-intentioned piece last Friday thanking Heaven for the completion of long-delayed West Avenue B paying project drew a sizable dissent from citizens actually living on that beleaguered thoroughfare.

If what the telephone reported be true then it should be reported in print.

But you can't print a telephone call. Response to a newspaper article has to be by letter — your own letter. Some people may avoid writing letters in fear of the demands of correct spelling and grammar, but in Hope this fear is groundless — The Star's staff corrects spelling and grammar. The idea behind a public letter is not to show up a citizen's deficiencies in the purely mechanical art of writing but to put over a point in a controversy.

But controversies in a newspaper do have to be presented in writing. And since the West Avenue B matter represents a controversy involving local public officials we require all letters to be signed, with addresses, for publication.

This is an invitation to West Avenue B residents to make themselves heard — in writing. After a year and a half of a completely blocked street I do suspect they feel like saying something — and this scream-and-yellow auditorium is the place to say it.

Gene Goff's Nodouble, the first Arkansas horse ever to win the Arkansas Derby at Hot Springs, hit the national sports headlines Saturday when he upset Damascus and took the Michigan Mile-and-One-Eighth — bringing $80,145 to his owner.

Nodouble entered the national picture earlier when he placed third in the Preakness. In five of his last eight races he has finished in the money.

Surprisingly little publicity has been given Gene Goff and his great horse by the Little Rock state papers although this is an Arkansas native. Goff was born at DeQueen, where his father was in the wholesale grocery business, later became wealthy in oil exploration, established a horse farm at Fayetteville and now lives at Tulsa.

He married a Hopegirl, Verna Lea Dildy, whose father was a partner in the state-wide Plumkett-Harrell-Dildy wholesale grocery firm which used to have a branch in Hope.

The Goff string of horses races under the colors of the Verna Lea Farm, Fayetteville, named after his wife.

The Summer issue of the Ozark Society Bulletin, published at Fayetteville, reached our office this week-end — and it has a tremendous story with many photographs on a float trip the Society conducted on the Cossatot River, one of the tributaries of Little River above Millwood Lake.

Ken Smith's article on the June 8-9 float reports that the float party launched its canoes at the State Highway 4 bridge east of Wickes (south of Mena) and went down the river through the site of Gilliam Dam, which will eventually block the river.

The magazine's front page has a photographic oddity — the picture of a perfect stone bowl hollowed out in the bed of the Cossatot by the grinding action of turbulent water and constantly rotating pebbles.

Navy, Airforce to Release More Reserves

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six Naval Air Reserve squadrons called up after North Korea seized the USS Pueblo last January will be deactivated "in the near future," the Pentagon said today.

The six squadrons have about 600 officers and enlisted men. It was the second major step taken by the Navy involving reservists within a week.

On Friday the Navy announced early releases for 30,000 Navy men who were serving two-year active duty tours under a special reserve program.

Largest Melon Goes 117½ Lbs.

The watermelon growing season in this area was climaxed this morning at the Chamber of Commerce office with the awarding of $750 in prizes.

First prize award went to Lester Kent of Hempstead County who produced the largest, a 117½ pounder. He received $300.

Second prize of $150 went to Arnold Middlebrooks who produced one that weighed 114½.

Third prize, in Hempstead County went to Pat Rateliff whose largest effort was 113 pounds.

In the trade area division Aubrey Goodwin of near Rossion received $150 for his 112½ pound melon.

The prize money was contributed by local firms and businessmen through efforts of the Chamber of Commerce.

Election Board and Rockefeller Air Proposal

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The State Board of Election Commissioners met today with Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller proposing that Democrats select from lists submitted by the Republican party third members to county boards in counties where ministerial groups choose not to designate a nominee.

The governor said ministers from 43 counties had submitted recommendations for the third positions. The agreement to name those recommended by ministers was made last week by the commission.

However, during the governor's statement, several other ministerial alliances sent telegrams to the commission and a recess was called to retabulate the figures.

Rockefeller said prior to formally opening the meeting that he would make some remarks.

Revolutionaries Plan Demonstrations to Cripple Columbia U.

By BRIAN SULLIVAN
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — A campaign by student revolutionaries and activists to cripple Columbia University again begins Tuesday with two planned demonstrations at the 214-year-old Ivy League school.

The radical Students for a Democratic Society has planned its first major actions to coincide with the arrival of freshmen on the Morningside Heights campus. Many classes start Sept. 26.

So two contending forces, those in the university hoping to avoid further disruption on campus and the band of student radicals, begin acting out a drama to see whether Columbia can reopen in peace this term.

Student activists and college administrators throughout the country are expected to follow the developments closely. After the earlier outbreaks at the University of California at Berkeley, Columbia has become the symbol of student unrest in the United States.

Columbia's school year ended in chaos last spring following clashes that involved administration, students, faculty and New York City police.

A sit-in that began April 23 spread, and students quickly occupied five campus buildings. Eight days later, 1,000 city police cleared the buildings and arrested more than 700 persons. There were nearly 200 in-

Letters To The Editor

This is your newspaper. Write to it. Address letters to: Editor The Star, P. O. Box 648, Hope, Ark. 71801.

All letters must be signed, with address, so you are identified to the newspaper staff, but if the character of the letter permits we will allow use of a pen-name in the publication, in which case you should add "Citizen," or some other word below your real name and address.

Pen-names are permitted when a letter deals only with issues. Direct attacks upon public officials, however, must bear the writer's name for publication.

REGARDING PETITION

Editor The Star: Concerning your remarks in a recent "All Around Town" column, I would suggest that you rename it "Gossip," meaning not necessarily true. If your earlier news article concerning petitions being filed were correct, then you should not have printed hearsay. If it were incorrect, as a factual newspaper, I feel that you should have apologized for the error. As it is, you have created a situation that needs clarifying as far as I am concerned, and I hope this letter will provide the information.

A group of prominent citizens and registered voters approached me to help them place a question before the Hempstead county voters. As the request was a legal one I agreed to assist them. As a concerned citizen I would assist any other group on any legal requests. I told this group that my participation ended with the filing of the petitions.

I have been told by numerous people that sales of alcoholic beverages are occurring in Hope and Hempstead county. Looting, rioting and arson are all illegal and we are against these things. Sales of alcoholic beverages in a dry county are illegal and we should be against this also. There is no such thing as breaking the law a little bit. We have either broken the law or we have not. Surely the registered voters of Hempstead county would not deny any group their Constitutional right to vote on this or any other question.

Remember, if the majority votes No, then that majority has both a moral and a citizen's obligation to assist the law enforcement agencies in whatever way they may request — even if it requires filing a complaint of giving evidence in Court. If the majority votes Yes, then they, likewise, have the same duties and obligations to assist in the enforcement of the regulations pertaining to the sale of alcoholic beverages.

I have been asked by my children: Why, if this is a dry county, can alcoholic beverages be purchased in so many different places? I could not answer the question and I am searching for an answer. Remember, on life-long sales there is no age regulation. The only requirement is: "Have you got the money?"

I say again to you, Mr. Editor and the citizens of Hempstead County, we must acknowledge and accept that we have duties to be participating citizens in the maintenance of our government to preserve the American Way of Life. This is not a question of personalities but a question of law and order: which direction shall we take?

I am not taking a stand for or against legal sales of alcoholic beverages, but I am taking a stand that the people of this County should be heard on this vital issue or on any that they may desire. Sincerely,
JAMES E. PRUDEN, JR.

Shooting Ruled Justifiable

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP) — A coroner's jury of 17 men ruled Sunday that the shooting of Lemar Harris, 40, of Magnolia was justifiable homicide.

The shooting occurred Sunday morning. Magnolia Police Chief James W. Cleaver said Patrolman Jack Shore answered a complaint call at the Harris residence and was met by Harris.

Cleaver said Harris came at Shore with a strip of lumber, and that the officer shot him once in the chest.

Thieves Hit Three Stores in Hope

City Police reported a series of incidents over the weekend ranging from auto accidents to burglaries.

Thieves struck three stores getting some $500 in cash. City Officers said the stores involved were Scott's Store, Quick Sak No. 2, and Walker's Used Furniture. Apparently the thieves went into the office of each store during business hours and took the money. Operators didn't know the money was missing until they went to get it. Officers said several places in Prescott were hit the same way. The investigation continues but there weren't any clues to work with.

Three accidents were reported. Saturday on Bell at Oak Street some $300 damage resulted when cars driven by George Witherspoon and Arnel Reed collided. City Officers Neal and Ward said no charges were filed.

Also Saturday on Paul Street a car owned by Rosie Bradford was parked in front of her home and another driven by James Charles White hit it, the damage ran from $300 to $400. Officers Long, Cairk, R. Rowe and Brown charged White with leaving the scene of the accident.

Sunday on South Elm, cars driven by Linda Fay Nelson and Dr. Sam Strong collided with an estimate $200 damage to both vehicles. Officers Ward and Shirley investigated.

'Catch-me' Killer Surrenders

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — John Erler, accused of being the "catch-me" killer of Hollywood, Fla., surrendered Sunday night to an off-duty sheriff's deputy and members of his family.

Erler, 24, a former policeman, held a .38-caliber revolver and threatened suicide as he talked for 45 minutes with Deputy Dave Kolsch and his mother, brother and sister, Koelsch said.

The confrontation ended when Erler handed the revolver to the unarmed deputy and rode off with him to the Maricopa County jail, where he was held for Florida authorities.

Erler is charged with killing Marilyn Clark, 12, at Hollywood last month. The second degree murder charge was filed Saturday after officers with whom he formerly worked said it was his voice in a telephone call that said, "I just killed three people. I'm serious. Please catch me. Please."

He resigned from the force Sept. 5, and came here to visit his family. He disappeared Saturday when word reached here that he had been charged with killing the girl whose body he discovered.

"I'm in trouble," Koelsch quoted him as telling his family. "I don't want you to be involved."

Police found his abandoned car.

Group Against Fortas Turns Attention to All Out Filibuster

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Johnson administration officials have asserted executive privilege in declining an invitation to testify at Senate hearings on Abe Fortas' nomination to be chief justice.

The Senate Judiciary Committee received letters from Undersecretary of the Treasury Joseph W. Barr and White House aide Devier W. Pierson shortly before the start of another hearing today on President Johnson's nomination of Fortas.

In the letters, it was learned, they claim they need not testify because of executive privilege — a doctrine based on the confidential nature of conferences within the executive branch of the government.

Barr and Pierson were wanted for questioning about a report by Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., that Fortas, a Supreme Court justice since 1965, took a stand this year in drafting legislation to provide Secret Service protection for presidential candidates.

Allott was the only scheduled witness at today's hearing, which is to be followed by a committee vote Tuesday on Fortas' nomination to succeed Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Earlier Fortas himself had declined to return for further questioning at the committee's reopened hearings, and Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford asked to be excused from appearing.

Subpoenas were issued for former White House aide Richard N. Goodwin and New York magazine writer Daniel Yergin, although it was doubtful that they could be served before the hearings ended. The committee sought to question Goodwin and Yergin about published reports that Fortas took part in preparing speeches for President Johnson.

It is thought certain that Fortas will be recommended by the committee to move up from associate justice on the Supreme Court to succeed Earl Warren.

But when the appointment reaches the floor it faces almost certain filibuster by a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats fighting Fortas' elevation on grounds ranging from his voting record on the court to charges that he improperly took part in decisions made by President Johnson and the executive department.

It would take a two-thirds vote to limit debate and thus kill a filibuster. Although the majority necessary to confirm Fortas seems to be secure, leaders in both parties doubt enough senators now would vote for debate-limiting closure and allow the appointment to come up for a final decision.

One Killed In Accident Near Washington

Elvin Mitchell, 32, of Washington, was killed late Saturday in a car-truck collision on Arkansas Highway 195 near Washington.

State and County police said the collision was between Mitchell's car and a pickup truck driven by Clemens McFadden, 57, of Cran. Both are Negroes. The investigation continues, said Deputy Sheriff Herbert Griffin.

Urges Rejection of Amendments to Cripple Gun Measure

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott urged the Senate today to reject what he said were weakening amendments to the gun control bill, including one he said would exempt ammunition controls for nearly 90 percent of all weapons.

"It excludes from coverage ammunition of the type that killed President John F. Kennedy, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Medgar Evers to take but a few examples," the Pennsylvania Republican said in a prepared speech.

Scott's appeal came as the Senate prepared to start voting on a series of amendments to the bill. Rifles, shotguns and ammunition would be added to the already enacted ban on mail order sales of handguns under the proposed law.

The bill as introduced also would prohibit sale of rifles,

Humphrey Trying for a Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey has set out to gain a face-to-face debate with Richard M. Nixon in an effort to overcome the substantial lead the political polls say the Republican has mounted in the drive for the White House.

Humphrey called Sunday for Nixon to "appear on network television to debate the issues of this campaign before the American people."

Nixon has failed to provide "unequivocal statements of position" on the three major issues of gun control legislation, the confirmation of Abe Fortas to be chief justice and ratification of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, Humphrey charged.

Nixon, who appeared in such debates against John F. Kennedy eight years ago, has not commented on Humphrey's challenge.

With the political polls showing the Democratic vice president lagging far behind, Humphrey is said to consider a debate with Nixon vital to his efforts to defeat the Republican candidate.

The Gallup Poll released Sunday showed that while Humphrey had gained slightly during last week he still trailed by a substantial 12 per cent, 43 to 31. Independent George C. Wallace.

Eight County Farm Bureau Meet Here

Farm Bureau leaders from eight counties will gather for an area policy development meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Town and Country Restaurant in Hope.

The meeting is one of a dozen being held throughout the state to launch formulation of the organization's official policy for 1969 on governmental and agricultural issues. Counties represented will be Hempstead, Columbia, Lafayette, Miller, Nevada, Pike, Little River and Howard.

In attendance will be county Farm Bureau resolutions committee members, officers and chairmen of state and national affairs committees. Each of the major commodity interests of the area will be represented.

The farmers will make plans for informing county membership of vital issues and preparing policy resolutions for approval at the county convention. County resolutions will be sent to the state convention for consideration in the state's policy.

Rep. Feild Not to Seek House Speakership

State Rep. Hayes C. McClerkin of Texarkana apparently will be the speaker of the House in the 1969-70 term, unless he is successfully challenged later in the year.

State Rep. Talbot Feild, Jr., chairman of the Arkansas Legislative Council, Saturday withdrew from the race for the speakership.

In a joint press conference, Feild told newsmen that he had notified his friends during the week of his withdrawal.

Feild said: "I am announcing my withdrawal from the race for Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 1969 Legislature, and I am conceding the Speakership to my good friend Representative Hayes McClerkin of Texarkana. Due to my responsibilities as Chairman of the Arkansas Legislative Council, and in view of the fact that considerable planning and preparations must be made before the Council's budget hearings begin next month, I will be unable to continue the campaign for Speaker."

"Hayes McClerkin has campaigned vigorously for the position of Speaker and is well qualified."

Allies Deal Cong Heavy Casualties

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese and U.S. forces dealt their enemies heavy casualties in fierce fighting Sunday and seized tons of stockpiled ammunition, including a rocket launcher and a large cache of rockets and mortars threatening Saigon.

Communiques reported 184 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed in two savage fights south of Da Nang and along the Cambodian border near the Duc Lap Special Forces camp. Another 169 enemy soldiers were reported killed in a dozen smaller skirmishes from the Mekong Delta to the demilitarized zone.

Allied casualties were put at 44 dead, 109 wounded and 11 missing. South Vietnam forces were involved in the major fights and suffered the bulk of the allied casualties—33 dead, 70 wounded and 11 missing.

Ten miles south of Da Nang, elite South Vietnamese rangers, backed by armored personnel carriers, dive-bombers and helicopter gunships reported killing 114 Communist troops threatening South Vietnam's second largest city. The rangers suffered considerable losses, too, 17 killed and 41 wounded.

Enemy gunners sent five rounds of big Russian-made 122mm rockets slamming into the eastern part of Da Nang Sunday night. Most of the rounds fell near the headquarters of the South Vietnamese 1st Corps, and eight civilians were reported wounded.

In support of the government infantrymen at Duc Lap, the U.S. Air Force's B52 bombers dumped more than 250 tons of explosives on troop concentrations four to six miles northwest of the camp.

An allied force sweeping the southern approaches to Saigon found a 107mm rocket launcher with up to a dozen tubes for simultaneous firing nine miles south of the capital. A stockpile of more than 200 big 122mm rockets, 82mm mortars, and smaller bazooka-type rockets was unearthed 10 miles northwest of the capital.

Military spokesmen said other ammunition and supplies seized over the weekend would be enough to sustain two Communist regiments of 5,000 men for several weeks.

One of the biggest stockpiles ever found in the war was turned up by South Vietnamese mercenaries and their American leaders along the Cambodian border 65 miles north of Saigon. It took eight big Chinook helicopters to haul off the ammunition, which included more than a million rounds for automatic rifles.

State Rep. Talbot Feild, Jr., chairman of the Arkansas Legislative Council, Saturday withdrew from the race for the speakership.

In a joint press conference, Feild told newsmen that he had notified his friends during the week of his withdrawal.

Accident at HemisFair Kills One

By RICHARD BEENE
Associated Press Writer
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Eleven minitmonorail cars derailed at the HemisFair Sunday, killing one person and injuring 49 after one of the trains struck another.

Thirteen of the injured remained in hospitals today as an investigation began to determine the cause of the accident.

Witnesses said the cars derailed after one train struck another from behind as they were rounding a curve by the HemisFair infirmary.

Bystanders and fair employees rushed to rescue the injured from the cars, two of which had fallen into a lagoon beside the 12-foot-tall monorail. One woman was saved from drowning.

"It was horrible," said Chris Hlg, 21, of Akron, Ohio, a fair employee. "I heard a tremendous crash and I saw people falling out—a little boy fell out, and people were screaming and asking where their families were."

"It was like a slow snake creeping down," she said.

The dead woman was identified by hospital officials as Emily Schmidt, 65, of Ellenville, Mo. Her sister-in-law, Ella Schmidt, 71, of Glencoe, Mo., was injured and in fair condition.

One of the injured Ella Jacobs, 74, of Hallsville, Mo., was listed in serious condition.

The tragedy struck on the day HemisFair had its second highest attendance. HemisFair spokesmen said 89,078 visited the fair Sunday, bringing the total to 5,513,322 since the fair opened April 6. The record one-day high is 100,486. The exposition closes Oct. 6.

It was the third known mishap involving the brightly colored trains and the first in which anyone was injured, officials said. Fire damaged four cars during a test run before the fair opened, and one officer said a collision similar to Sunday's occurred in the early days of the fair. It was minor, however, and no one was injured, he said.

Police blamed Sunday's collision on faulty brakes but John Moore, manager of the 1.5-mile long monorail system, disputed this account.

Some of the trains resumed operations Sunday night.

Kennedy's Backing Power Gets Tested

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's backing power gets a test in the Massachusetts primary Tuesday. In another primary, all eight of Washington state's congressmen are expected to coast to renomination over little or no opposition.

In Oklahoma, two Democrats who both claim they offer the best hope of unseating Republican Rep. Page Belcher compete in a runoff for the chance to try.

Kennedy, D-Mass., and his wife both have campaigned for incumbent Democratic Rep. Edward P. Boland whose renomination bid is challenged by former three-term Springfield, Mass., Mayor Charles V. Ryan Jr.

Another incumbent with Kennedy ties—Democratic Rep. Torbert H. Macdonald who was the late President John F. Kennedy's roommate at Harvard—faces the Rev. John D. Elder, assistant dean of Harvard Divinity School, in his bid for renomination.

Incumbent Rep. Phillip J. Philbin is challenged by three Democrats for the nomination to face the winner of a GOP contest between former congressman Laurence Curtis and Malcolm E. Peabody, brother of former Democratic Gov. Enclott Peabody.

Four Massachusetts congressmen have no opposition in either the primary or the general election Nov. 5.

In Washington, Democratic Sen. Warren G. Magnuson and the seven U.S. representatives have either token opposition or, in three cases, none.

That focuses attention on livelier state office races where Bill Muncey, a national speedboat champion, faces Art Fletcher, a Negro city councilman from Pasco for the GOP lieutenant governor nomination.

The Democratic gubernatorial nomination bid is a three-way race between state Atty. Gen. John J. O'Connell, state Sen. Martin Durkan and Jack Tanner, a Negro Tacoma attorney.

The Oklahoma runoff race for the nomination to oppose Belcher is between Pat Malloy, a political veteran, and John B. Jarboe, a political newcomer.

The fight went into a runoff when Malloy polled only 739 votes more than Jarboe in the August primary.

Socialists Keep Control of Sweden

By EDWIN A. SHANKE
Associated Press Writer
STOCKHOLM (AP) — The Socialists strengthened their 36-year grip on the Swedish welfare state with a smashing parliamentary election victory Sunday, the biggest vote of confidence the Social Democratic party has won since the war.

The outcome was a surprise to most political commentators, who had expected a much closer race. It also checked the trend to the right in Scandinavia. Both Norway and Denmark ousted Socialist governments in the past two years in favor of non-Socialist governments.

On the basis of computer calculations, the Socialists provisionally took 49 per cent of the vote and 125 of the 233 seats at stake in the lower house of Parliament, a gain of 12 seats.

The combined opposition dropped seven seats to a total of 105, while the Communists retained only three of their eight seats.

This gave the Socialists a majority of 17 seats, their first since World War II. In the last house, they had a working majority of nine because the eight Communists always voted with them.

Some slight rearrangement of seats could result from the estimated 300,000 mail votes. Although the computers were keyed to reflect them, the volume was at least 65 per cent above the 1964 total.

Mathews to Start Demo Convention

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Charles Matthews of North Little Rock was selected Saturday to serve as temporary chairman of the Democratic State Convention that begins Thursday.

Matthews selection was announced at a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, which also chose Mrs. Floyd Massey of Hot Springs as temporary secretary and Sheriff Courtney Langston of Harrison as temporary sergeant at arms.

Perrin Jones of Searcy was selected chairman of the platform committee, Jack Yates of Ozark was named to head the resolutions committee and Beilitt Taylor of Little Rock was chosen chairman of the committee to revise the party rules.

The committee also named these persons to serve as electors for the Democratic presidential nominees, if they are elected Nov. 5:

Mrs. Ruth McAdams of Little Rock, Warren Minton of Lonoke, George Davis of Horatio, state Sen. Olen Hendrix of Prescott, Max Brown of Lake Village and Jack Gardner of Little Rock.

J. P. Lybrand, executive secretary of the party, said that Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W. Va., will deliver the principal address at a $10-a-plate Democratic fund-raising dinner Thursday.

Lybrand said proceeds of the dinner will go toward campaign expenses of the state's major Democratic nominees.

Teachers in New York Strike Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Teachers remained on strike today despite new state and city efforts to end a job security dispute and there were no classes for most of the city's 1.1 million public school pupils.

In the district where the trouble started, the Ocean Hill-Brownsville district of Brooklyn, eight schools opened with near-normal complements of teachers and pupils.

But most of the 55,000 members of the United Federation of Teachers stayed away from their schools after UFT President Albert Shanker told them Sunday that resumption of classes today was impossible.

Shanker termed "fuzzy" a plan by State Education Commissioner James E. Allen Jr. aimed at ending the strike. But he added that the UFT was considering the proposals, which included replacing the controversial governing board of the Ocean Hill-Brownsville eighth school district in Brooklyn.

The union's president predicted Sunday that the walkout would run longer than last fall's 14-day strike and that it "may be the longest teachers strike in history."

School Supt. Bernard E. Donovan said the school buildings would be open, and it was up to the district superintendents whether the children should be admitted.

The school crisis stems from last Spring, when the local Brooklyn board dismissed 10 teachers for alleged insubordination, and 200 other teachers walked out in sympathy. An impartial arbitrator later ruled that the charges were unfounded.

The current strike started last Monday, and the local board agreed Tuesday to take back the teachers, the union's basic demand. When they arrived for classes the next day, militant parents and board members told the educators they were not wanted.

Last week, all classes were held Wednesday and Thursday only. Some schools, including those in the Ocean Hill-Brownsville district, remained open all week. After a meeting with the city Board of Education Sunday, the Rev. C. Herbert Oliver, chairman of the Ocean Hill-Brownsville board, rejected Allen's plan, which called for a temporary dissolution of the local board plus transferring the 10 white teachers who had been "dismissed."

Auto-Safety Stabilizer and is designed to stabilize any vehicle on sharp turns.

It weighs only 50 pounds and bolts onto the floor of the trunk of any car. It actually prevents skidding and overturning and costs only $189.95. In the demonstration Friday the car pictured blew out two tires by turning sharply going 70 miles per hour. You can see the small circle in the bottom picture made by the sharp turn. The auto didn't overturn. A high percentage of accidents involves skidding and loss of control. This device actually prevents this. When a car goes into a skid or turn the 50 pound weight moves automatically to the opposite side, thus stabilizing the vehicle.

Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. and subsidiaries operate many vehicles and the accident toll is costly. Thus the firm looks into anything that will cut down accidents. All of the firm's employees in this area witnessed the demonstration and all were impressed as were two Star employees, Pod Rogers and Billy Dan Jones.

The middle photo shows the ruined tires and the bottom photo shows the auto making an almost impossible turn without overturning.

Four Persons Meet Death on Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Four persons were killed in traffic accidents on the Arkansas highways, including two in a one-car accident Friday night, during the weekend period, which began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

State Police said Walter L. Farris, 22, of Harrisburg and Steven J. Slinger, 19, of Mountain Home, were killed when a car driven by Farris left U.S. 67 about a mile south of Searcy. Officers said the car struck a driveway culvert and broke in half.

Authorities said Elvin Mitchell, 32, of Washington (Hempstead County) was killed Saturday in a car-truck collision on Arkansas 195 near Washington, which is about nine miles north of Hope.

Police said William Richard Donham, 14, of Pine Bluff was killed Saturday when the motorcycle he was riding was struck by a truck on Arkansas 79 inside the Pine Bluff city limits.

Thinks Bill Victory for Freedom Choice

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Mitchell Young of Texarkana, Tex., national president of Freedom, Inc., says he expects many court suits to be filed to return school districts to freedom-of-choice desegregation plans if a bill passed recently by the Senate is signed into law as is.

Carl Flaxman of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's Office of Civil Rights in Dallas says, however, that from what he has heard, he disagrees that the bill will affect HEW's feature of withholding funds.

The bill, which Young said was a "tremendous victory" for supporters of freedom of choice, now goes to a conference committee to iron out differences between the House and Senate. The bill apparently would cripple HEW's desegregation efforts.

The bill's provisions prohibit HEW from withholding federal funds in order to compel busing of students to achieve racial balance, force abolition of any school or to force students to attend a school against their parents' choice.

Flaxman said the Senate's addition to the wording "in order to overcome racial imbalance" to the prohibitive amendments attached in the House by Rep. Jamie Whitten, D-Miss., would nullify Whitten's intent.

"There is nothing in the policies of HEW that would impose racial balance in the first place," Flaxman said. He said HEW's concern is erasing the "racial identity" of schools.

Young said he expected there to be court suits in school districts that, under pressure from HEW and facing the prospect of losing federal funds, had abandoned freedom of choice.

Young said his organization, which has chapters in 17 states, probably would institute suits in some districts "and show the whole country how ruthless and vindictive HEW has become."

Leaders Urge Czechs Not to Lose Hope

By GENE KRAMER

Associated Press Writer

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Communist leaders urged their people in weekend speeches not to lose hope despite tightening censorship and other restrictions demanded by the Soviet Union.

Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek and other top officials took to television to bolster public confidence in their will to revive and continue the highly popular liberalization program while still meeting Moscow's insistence on measures to secure and perpetuate communism in Czechoslovakia.

The speeches also made plain that there will be no more freedom for anti-Communist political activity.

The appeals for hope were directed partly at thousands of Czechs and Slovaks in Western Europe who are hesitating about coming home and at many who contemplate moving abroad if the borders aren't sealed.

A major Sunday television program was introduced with a panorama of the Prague skyline and a girl singing a melancholy folk song "After the tempest, the sun will shine again."

National Assembly President Jiri Smrkovsky repeated the sentiment: "It will not be easy and it won't be right away, but the sun will shine again."

Smrkovsky pledged anew that the leadership will tell the truth to the people even when this is difficult. He said that "if it is not possible to tell the truth, I would prefer to keep quiet."

In spite of the appeals for hope and the relief felt over withdrawal of Soviet tanks and paratroopers from the cities to rural and frontier areas, the predominant mood was sadness.

With roads free again for civilian traffic, thousands poured into the countryside under gray skies Sunday, riding in trains and hordes of small automobiles.

Traffic jams miles long developed when everybody started back to Prague Sunday night. But the Czechoslovaks showed the discipline that has marked their nonviolent resistance to the occupation. The only honking and cutting out of line was by cars with foreign license plates.

A gas station attendant remarked that "everybody is out driving because they aren't sure about future petrol supplies once that new pipeline from Russia is brought in."

He was referring to the pipeline provided for in a new economic agreement signed in Moscow last week by Premier Oldrich Cernik.

Newspapers contained much less news than a week ago as editors observed censorship directives and the new law forbidding criticism of the occupation powers and publication of anything that conflicts with "vital interests of the state's domestic or foreign policy."

Patrick Now Faces the Record Holder

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP) — Coming down the home stretch, his spot in today's 1,500-meter Olympic qualifying race assured, Dave Patrick saw his Villanova teammate Martin Liquori racing up on the outside.

"Come on, Marty, let's tie," Patrick said, and they almost did as Patrick won the semifinal heat by a slim margin with both runners timed in 3:48.8.

"But there's no tie in the final," Patrick said as he related the story after the race.

Patrick faces world record holder Jim Ryun in the final event on the eight-day program at these U.S. Olympic track and field trials.

Ryun won his heat Sunday in 3:53.0 and there was some speculation that perhaps Patrick might have made a strategic error by running so much faster than he needed to qualify and perhaps tiring himself for today's race.

Normally a stretch finisher who stays back until the last lap, Patrick set the early pace in his semifinal before falling back and then coming up to take the lead in the final back stretch.

"I got the pace and I thought I'd keep it for a little while," Patrick, the collegiate 1,500-meter champion, said. "I ran hard today, harder than I wanted to."

If Ryun and Patrick are the favorites to battle for the victory and the first two places on the 1,500-meter squad, the 19-year-old Liquori, a Villanova sophomore, showed that he should be counted very much in the race for the third spot.

The other qualifiers for the final were Roscoe Divine and Dave Wilborn of Oregon, Tom Von Ruden of the U.S. Army, Sam Bair of Kent State and John Mason of Fort Hayes, Kan., State.

Volts Manage Tie in the Last Moment

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Tennessee's Volunteers had hot feet but Nebraska's Paul Rogers had the hottest foot of all.

Rogers, a sophomore, kicked a 51-yard field goal with 21 seconds left that gave the 14th-ranked Cornhuskers a 13-10 triumph over Wyoming as the college football season got under way Saturday.

Ninth-ranked Tennessee, playing on their new synthetic Tartan Turf, scored on the final play of the game and then added a two-point conversion pass to pull out a 17-all tie with upset-minded Georgia.

"Your feet got hotter than on natural grass," said Tennessee linebacker Steve Kliner, "but the added heat was no problem."

Those were the only two members of The Associated Press' Top Twenty to see action over the weekend but there were plenty of others hotfooting it across the nation's gridirons.

Eugene "Mercury" Morris rambled for touchdowns of 71, 9, 57 and 33 yards as West Texas State crushed Lamar Tech 45-7. Roland Moss, second in the country in scoring last season, set a school record by rushing for 209 yards as Toledo clobbered Richmond 31-14. And Paul Gipson ran for 115 of Houston's 578 total yards as the explosive Cougars trampled Tulane 54-7.

Other scores included: North Carolina State 10, Wake Forest 8; Morehead State 7, Marshall 7; Western Michigan 20, Arkansas State 0; Iowa State 28, Buffalo 10; Utah State 28, New Mexico State 12; Dayton 24, Kent State 10.

Rogers earlier booted a 26-yard field goal but Nebraska trailed 10-3 entering the fourth period against Wyoming. The Cornhuskers caught up as sub-quarterback Ernie Sigler passed 17 yards to Jim McFarland, setting the stage for Rogers' 51-yarder.

Tennessee also came from behind in the final period. Bubba Wyche capped a 48-yard drive with a 20-yard touchdown pass to Gary Kreis as the final gun sounded. Wyche then threw to Kenny Delong for the two-point conversion.

Georgia had struck for three long-range scores—Jim McCullough's 40-yard field goal, Jake Scott's 90-yard punt return and Bruce Kemp's 80-yard run. Houston pulled away from Tulane after a 14-7 halftime lead. Gipson's statistics included a 57-yard TD run and Elmo Wright caught scoring passes of 50 yards from Ken Bailey and 81 from Rusty Clark.

The mercurial Mr. Morris churned out 229 yards in 21 carries, bringing is total for three years at West Texas State to 2,210. He had able assistance from Curly Waters, who tallied on punt returns of 58 and 72 yards.

San Diego State, best small college team in the land a year ago, needed Dennis Shaw's five-yard touchdown run with 1:22 to play to defeat Texas-Arlington 23-18.

New Zealand Monopoly Is Broken

BRIDGEHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP) — Roger Donohue, U.S. road racing champion from Media, Pa., broke the New Zealand monopoly on the $507,000 Canadian-American Challenge Cup by winning the Bridgehampton Grand Prix Sunday at a record average speed of 111.32 miles an hour.

But it was second-place Jim Hall—32 seconds back—and a car he never expected to run who literally spoiled the success string of Bruce McLaren, defending Can-Am king, and world driving champ Dennis Hulme, his teammate and countryman.

Hall had to abandon the idea of running a new car for this richest series in road racing at the last minute. He came here with his old white Chaparral and its rear wing, or spoiler, and amounted to total disaster for the overseas contingent.

"We had to run much harder much sooner when that great white monster loomed in our rear view mirrors," said McLaren. "Any time one's race plan is destroyed he is in trouble. Jim is about six months ahead of us in aerodynamics, anyway. That was the difference on this 2.85-mile circuit."

Hall, who said he took it easy the first 10 of the 70-lap, 199.5-mile race to check out new tires and brakes, literally sand-bagged the startled Kiwis and such as Donohue, New Yorker Pete Revson and Dan Gurney of Santa Ana, Calif., when he charged into the lead easily about halfway through the race.

But then a piece of dirt lodged in his fuel injection system and he had to fall back.

He had done the damage, however. Hulme fell victim to a broken engine soon after and then, when Donohue pressed McLaren, the New Zealander's overstrained engine broke, too, nine laps from the end.

Donohue, who drove his Penske Sunoco Chevrolet, leads with 13 points for the lion's share of the $126,000 Can-Am point fund.

Former Baseball Hurler Killed

GRANADA HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Don Rudolph, 37, who compiled a 17-29 record pitching for four major league baseball teams between 1957 and 1963, has been killed in a traffic accident in this Los Angeles suburban community.

Rudolph, in the contracting business since retiring from baseball, lost control of his pickup truck on a steep grade Thursday, police said. He was thrown from the vehicle which then rolled over on him, they said.

Arrives First at Olympics

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Giuseppe Fabre, member of the Italian delegation to the Olympic Games, became Thursday the first inhabitant of the Olympic Village, Liberator Manuel Hidalgo.

Fabre was congratulated by Francisco Javier Miranda, administrator of the Olympic Village for being the first foreign visitor to live in the Village.
